to be held Friday
December 7, 2012
at Christmas Party
Earl Abel's
1201 Austin Highway
6:30—6:45pm
Social/dinner to follow

What's Buzzin'

Our Christmas Party will be preceded by a short business meeting starting at 6:30p.m., Ken Rowe will give a report from the nominating committee (I can promise a surprise) then we will have to vote on the officers. We will have a short "social" prior to our Annual Christmas dinner. After dinner the fun begins with our traditional Christmas Gifting.

Remember, the ceiling has been lifted on the cost of your gifts. It is now $25.00 maximum.

For our new members, you are asked to bring a wrapped or gift bagged gift for each member of your party. We will have two tables for the gifts, one for the ladies and another for the guys.

You will be asked to draw a slip of paper which will have a number on it. Then numbers are drawn and you will get to choose a gift, when your number is drawn, from the table, or you can steal a gift that was previously chosen. Then the person whose gift was stolen can choose another gift. (No gift can be stolen more than twice).

Saturday will be the trip to the Medina Children's Home. We will take a leisurely ride to the Children's home, arriving around 11AM. The gifts will be distributed and then John Murphy will perform a magic show for the house members.

Around noon we will depart for Kerrville and the Y-O Hotel and the Branding Iron Restaurant for lunch. After lunch we will take a scenic drive back to San Antonio.

Please RSVP for the Children's home event to: buzzdurio@satx.rr.com

In Memory

Alice Bernice (Kosub) Kiolbassa, better known as "Nana", born on May 23rd 1917, joined her husband in heaven, Saturday, October 6th, 2012 at age 95.

Alice's family and get-togethers meant everything to her. Her cheerful, kind and loving way will always be cherished by those she leaves behind.

To Our T-Bird Family:

Just a short note to say thank you one and all for the love and support during the loss of our mother.

Perhaps you sent a lovely card,
or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent a funeral spray, if so we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest
words, as any friend could say;
Perhaps you were not there at all, just thought of us that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts, we thank you so much whatever the part.

Harvey Jenkins

5/11/41—11/4/12

Ten years ago, it was our good fortune to accidentally meet members of the SACTC at the Sattler Christmas Parade. We followed the group to Carol Buss' house for pot luck and paid our dues on the spot. We never dreamed that a little car would bring us so many good times and so many good friends.

Harvey loved cars and club members gave him the opportunity to talk about and to work on the T-Bird. He especially liked spending time in Andy's garage with Andy and John K. and was glad to help whenever he could.

Harvey was a man with the heart of a child. He freely loved family and friends and enjoyed spending time with those he cared about. And, he loved dessert – any time, any place and anywhere. Any gathering or lunch run or cruise had to have a sweet stop along the way. As tour guides, John K. and Buzz always knew that Harvey would light up at the mention of a gooey dessert on the menu.

Even though this past year has been difficult, your cards, calls and offers of help have kept us connected. We both appreciated your friendship, your support, your thoughts, your encouragement and your love. But, most of all, we always knew that we were in your prayers and for that I will be eternally grateful.

The plant that you brought to the house is a beautiful reminder of your affection for him and a comfort to me, our children and our grandchildren. Thank you very much, Nelle

5 Things That Are Costing You Money & Destroying Your Vehicle

Preface: Fuel Systems and Ethanol Fuel

Older vehicles made before 2004 do not have fuel system components that can stand up to the highly corrosive effects of ethanol-blended gasoline. As ethanol has infiltrated the nation's fuel supply, more and more people are witnessing firsthand how ethanol dissolves rubber and plastic parts over time and draws water into the fuel. Beyond this, ethanol reduces gas mileage (it has less energy than gasoline does). Depending on what state you're in, it may actually be illegal to buy ethanol-free gas at the filling station.

Here are the 5 facts you need to know to protect your vehicles and your wallet.

Fact 1: Ethanol is an alcohol added to gasoline by federal law, which is costing Americans more of their money this year than ever before. A recent study performed by the US Automakers warn drivers that additional Ethanol added to our fuel could cost them $4,000 in repairs on each vehicle they drive.

Fact 2: You get lower mileage on ethanol-blended gasoline than regular gasoline because ethanol has less energy in it. E10 users already see a 3 - 5% drop in fuel economy. With E15 being pushed out nationwide within a year, you can expect an even larger drop in fuel economy from this blend.

Fact 3: Ethanol attracts moisture from the air, which destroys the quality of the gasoline and strips away a good amount of the octane rating of that fuel due to phase separation. You end up with a layer of poor quality gasoline and a layer of water and ethanol in the bottom of your fuel tank that can damage your engine if it's sucked up into the combustion chamber by your fuel line.

Fact 4: Ethanol is corrosive to rubber, plastic and even some metals like aluminum. Over time, this process can destroy seals, gaskets, fuel lines and other key components of your engine costing you breakdowns and extra repair costs.

Fact 5: You can protect yourself from the damaging effects of ethanol with Ethanol Defense by Bell Performance. Bell has supplied AACA with the above information and they can be contacted at www.EthanolDefense.com. AACA does not endorse this product nor have we done any testing. We offer this info purely as educational and you can make your own decision on the value of the product. We all surely know that ethanol is an enemy of many of our collector cars.

SENIOR DRIVER

My neighbor was working in his yard when he was startled by a late model car that came crashing through his hedge and ended up in his front lawn.

He rushed to help an elderly lady driver out of the car and sat her down on a lawn chair.

My goodness," he said with excitement, "you appear quite elderly to be driving."

"Well, yes, I am," she replied proudly. "I'll be 97 next month, and I am now old enough that I don't even need a driver's license anymore.

"The last time I went to my doctor, he examined me and asked if I had a driver's license. I told him yes and handed it to him. He took scissors out of the drawer, cut the license into pieces, and threw them in the wastebasket, saying, 'You won't need this anymore,' so I thanked him and left!"
